

science and policy
for a healthy future

Date	Preliminary programme (a more detailed programme will be available mid April)
17 June	Introduction to biomonitoring and human studies, toxicology and AOPs
18 June	Modelling session
19 June	Field trip to EMEP station - National observatory Kosetice/laboratory training/demonstrations
20 June	Risk assessment and use of HBM data/Derivation and use of human biomonitoring guidance values
21 June	Risk communication; participatory processes and risk assessment

Registration and payment:

Masaryk University shopping centre: <https://is.muni.cz/auth/obchod/fakulta/sci/?lang=en;setlang=en>

Accommodation:

The Vinařská Garni Hotel: (<http://www.skm.muni.cz/hotel/garni-vinarska?en>)

Registration fee:

Only registrations for the complete programme will be accepted. The fee covers lectures and practical exercises, background materials, field trip, accommodation, breakfasts, light lunches. Participants cover their travel expenses and health insurance.

- Full: CZK 17,500 (i.e. € 680)
- Early bird CZK 16,000 (i.e. € 620)
- HBM4EU CZK 13.000 (i.e. € 500) for this reduced fee you need to register on the HBM4EU training website (www.hbm4eu.eu).

Registration opening: 15 April 2019

Early bird registration: 30 April 2019

Registration deadline: 1 June 2019

Cancellation policy: No refund if cancelled after June 3th

No show policy: Participants may not be admitted to future HBM4EU training

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 733032.

Info: Email: HBM4EU@uba.de